The college regularly invites learned academicians, industrialists and dignitaries to deliver seminar and lectures to create enthusiasm and zeal among student. The institute is well known for highest order of discipline

The Seminar

The seminar on Intellectual property rights: opportunities & challenges will be conducted on 10th September 2009.

Preambles

In current context, the dogma in research has shifted from publishing the research paper to getting the research patented. This has helped the institute to generate adequate returns and reorganization. Due to realization of the importance of patent, it was felt necessary by our college to conduct a seminar in order to give exposure of the patenting system to researchers, industrialists, teachers and student of pharmacy and allied field.

Objective

The objectives of seminar are to learn about:

- Importance of patenting system
- Patent filing
- Effective patent application drafting.
- Patent and pharma industry

Who Should Attend -

This seminar is intended for the professional in the research institute and pharmaceuticals/ allied industries, pharmacy and biotechnology teachers, research scholars and M.Pharm student.
